READING

2 Corinthians 5:6-19

The good news from God, according to 2 Corinthians.

⁶So we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord — ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. ¹⁰For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

¹¹Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade others; but we ourselves are well known to God, and I hope that we are also well known to your consciences.

¹²We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart. ¹³For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. ¹⁵And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

¹⁶From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. ¹⁷So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! ¹⁸All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us.

Word of God, word of life. Thanks be to God.

For additional devotion, you may wish to read and reflect on the rest of the assigned lectionary texts for the Third Sunday after Pentecost: Ezekiel 17:22-24, Psalm 92:1-4, 12-15, Mark 4:26-34.

The people are seated. Children may come forward for the children's message.

In June, we're focusing our benevolence on the St. Martin's Samaritan Fund. This fund allows St. Martin's to meet emergency needs in our congregation and community. Giving to the Samaritan Fund supports ministries like our freeze shelter during this year's winter storm, which provided shelter, food, and medical care to our neighbors.

You can give through Realm, selecting "Samaritan Fund" from the drop down menu, or by writing a check to the church designated "Pastor's Discretionary Fund."

Thank you for your support of St. Martin's ministries!
